Special Consideration & Reasonable Adjustments Policy

1 Scope of the policy

This policy covers the principles of course management and administrative procedures offered through Bliss College, ensuring that the welfare and general interest of students are prioritised, through ensuring effective learner admission management. This policy and procedure cover all activities that form part of applying special consideration and reasonable adjustments.

In order for the policy and procedure to be effective, it is essential that any employees involved in any aspect assessment of learners are aware of this document. Ultimately, it is the responsibility of the senior management to ensure that this is the case.

2 Purpose of the policy

The purpose of this policy is to implement Bliss College's commitment to develop a learning environment where all applicants and students are given the opportunity to demonstrate and realise their full potential. It aims to set the parameters for applying special consideration and reasonable adjustments of learners onto programs.

3 Location of the policy

You can obtain a copy of this policy by ringing our administration team on 02085144977.

4 Communication of the policy

It is important that personnel involved in the management, assessment, and quality assurance of all programs on offer, are fully aware of the contents of the policy. Management will assume the responsibility for communicating all updates to this policy to all stakeholders affected by it.

5 Review of the policy

This policy is a live document and will evolve over time. Although the review dates are scheduled above, this may change due to feedback from stakeholders, external agencies, and regulatory authorities. The review of the policy will ensure that procedures continue to be consistent with the regulatory criteria and are applied properly and fairly in arriving at judgments in promoting a fair and inclusive learning and teaching environment for all.

6 Introduction

This policy sets out the procedures that learners and tutors should follow when implementing reasonable adjustments and special considerations. Nothing in this policy should prejudice the information given in the centre's related policies. For the purpose of this policy and to reflect differing terminology between different awarding bodies, the word learner also refers to a pupil and also to a student. The term Curriculum Leaders also refers to Directors of Teaching and Learning and also to Programme Leaders. The word assessor refers to any member of staff who has responsibility for assessing learners' work.

7 Principles

As a teaching and learning establishment we recognise disabilities are of a diverse nature and we do not tolerate discrimination on the basis of disability. Bliss College complies with the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 and the amendments to the Act. This policy embraces the requirements of the Disability Discrimination Act to allow fair access to curriculum courses or qualifications.

We aim to facilitate open access for learners who are eligible for some reasonable adjustment and/or special consideration in assessments, without compromising the assessment of the skills, knowledge, understanding, or competence being measured.

This will be achieved in two ways.

1. Firstly, by reasonable adjustment, this is agreed at the pre-assessment planning stage and is any action that helps to reduce the effect of a disability or difficulty, which places the learner at a substantial disadvantage in the assessment situation. Reasonable adjustments will not affect the reliability or validity of assessment outcomes or give the learner an assessment advantage over other learners undertaking the same or similar assessments.
2. Secondly through special consideration, this is a post-assessment allowance to reflect temporary illness, injury or indisposition that occurred at the time of assessment. Any special consideration granted cannot remove the difficulty the learner faced at the time of assessment and can only be a relatively small adjustment to ensure that the integrity of the assessment is not compromised.

7.1 Aims

- To explain how Bliss College, as a teaching centre, will manage requests for reasonable adjustment and or requests for special consideration.
- To identify the roles and responsibilities of staff connected to the assessment process, examinations, or learner support.
- To establish protocols for dealing with lost or damaged work and to explain the terminology used by the examination boards when considering requests for adjustment and or special consideration.

7.2 Practice

Reasonable Adjustment

Policy: Special Consideration and Reasonable Adjustment	Date created: December 2017	Date implemented: January 2018
Responsibility: Quay Tran	Approved by: Management	To be reviewed: May 2023

Special Consideration & Reasonable Adjustments Policy

1. A reasonable adjustment helps to reduce the effect of a disability or difficulty that places the learner at a substantial disadvantage in the assessment situation. Reasonable adjustments must not affect the validity or reliability of assessment outcomes, but may involve the following:
 - a. Changing usual assessment arrangements.
 - b. Adapting assessment materials.
 - c. Aiding during assessment.
 - d. Re-organising the assessment physical environment.
 - e. Changing or adapting the assessment method.
 - f. Using assistive technology.
2. Reasonable adjustments must be approved (internally or externally) with the relevant examination board and set in place prior to assessment commencing. It is an arrangement to give a learner access to a qualification
3. The work produced following a reasonable adjustment must be assessed in the same way as the work from other learners.
4. It is important to note that not all adjustments described will be reasonable, permissible, or practical in particular situations. The learner may not need, nor be allowed the same adjustment for all assessments.
5. Reasonable adjustments could consist of any of the following:
 - a. Allowing extra time, e.g., assignment extensions.
 - b. Using a different assessment location.
 - c. Use of coloured overlays, low vision aids, CCTV.
 - d. Use of assistive software.
 - e. Assessment material in large format or Braille.
 - f. Readers/scribes.
 - g. Practical assistants/transcribers/prompters.
 - h. Assessment material on coloured paper or in audio format.
 - i. Language-modified assessment material.
 - j. British Sign Language (BSL).
 - k. Use of ICT/responses using electronic devices.
6. Curriculum Leaders should ensure that learners are recruited onto courses with integrity to ensure that learners have the correct information and advice on their selected qualifications; and that the qualifications will meet their needs.
7. The recruitment process should include the curriculum leader assessing each potential learner and making justifiable and professional judgments about the learner's potential to successfully complete the assessment and achieve the qualification. Such assessment must identify, where appropriate, the support that will be made available to the learner to facilitate access to the assessment. Where the recruitment process identifies that the learner may not be able to demonstrate attainment and thus gain achievement in all parts of assessment for the selected qualification, this must be communicated

- clearly to the learner. A learner may still decide to proceed with studying a particular qualification and not be entered for all or part of the assessment.
8. As a teaching and learning/examinations centre, Bliss College will endeavour to ensure that learners are aware of the range of options available to them, including any reasonable adjustments that may be necessary, to enable them to demonstrate attainment across all of the required assessment strands; and any restrictions on progression routes to the learner as a result of not achieving certain outcomes.
 9. Reasonable adjustments are approved before an assessment and are intended to allow attainment to be demonstrated. A learner does not have to be disabled (as defined by the DDA) to qualify for reasonable adjustment; nor will every learner who is disabled be entitled to reasonable adjustment. Allowing reasonable adjustment is dependent upon how it will facilitate access for the learner.
 10. All reasonable adjustments will be transparent and unbiased, recorded on relevant examination board documentation and will be kept on record in compliance with regulations.
 11. It will be the responsibility of the Examinations Officer to ensure that any access arrangements implemented by the centre on behalf of a learner, is based on firm evidence that there is a barrier to assessment.
 12. It should be noted that a Statement of Special Educational Needs (SEN) does not automatically qualify the learner for reasonable adjustment to assessment, as the SEN statement may not contain a recent evaluation of the need of that learner; and the reasonable adjustment may compromise the assessment.

7.3 Special Considerations

1. A special consideration is consideration given following a period of assessment for a learner who was prepared for and present at an assessment but who may have been disadvantaged by temporary illness, injury or adverse circumstances that have arisen at or near to the time of assessment.
2. Where assessment is in the form of an electronic test set and marked by computer, then it will be more appropriate to offer the learner an opportunity to take the assessment at a later date.
3. A special consideration cannot give the learner an unfair advantage but it can be regarded as when a performance in an assessment is affected by circumstances beyond the control of the learner, e.g. recent personal illness, accident, bereavement, serious disturbance during the assessment or alternative assessment arrangements which were agreed in advance of the assessment proved inappropriate or inadequate or part of an assessment has been missed due to circumstances beyond the control of the learner.
4. In order to apply for special consideration then evidence must be supplied by a learner and then by Bliss College as a centre. Evidence such as personal arrangements, staff shortages, lack of resources, building work or industrial disputes are not grounds for special considerations.

5. The following examples are not designed to be an exhaustive list but to give an example of the weight of circumstances that will be considered:
 - a. Terminal illness of the learner.
 - b. Terminal illness of a parent.
 - c. Recent bereavement of a member of the immediate family.
 - d. Serious and disruptive domestic crisis leading to acute anxiety about the family.
 - e. Incapacitating illness of the learner.
 - f. Severe car accident.
 - g. Recent traumatic experiences such as the death of a close friend or distant relative.
 - h. Flare-up of severe congenital conditions such as epilepsy, diabetes, severe asthmatic attack.
 - i. Recent domestic crisis.
 - j. Recent physical assault trauma.
 - k. Broken limb on the mend.
6. Unlike reasonable adjustment, there are no circumstances whereby Bliss College can apply its own special consideration. Applications must be made to the relevant awarding body.
7. All applications for special consideration will only be made on a case-by-case basis and therefore separate applications will be made for any learner. The only exception to this is where a group of learners have been affected by a similar circumstance such as a fire alarm during an assessment; in this case a group application will be made with a list of affected learners attached to the application.
8. If such a request is to be made then the evidence required by the school to support the application will need to be a medical certificate, a doctor's letter, or a statement from the invigilator.

End.
